

KOLLURU KRISHAN

Graduate in Electrical Engineering from I.I.T. Kharagpur. Extensive experience in the Energy & Infrastructure sectors, Founder Managing Director of Ansaldo Energia's Indian JVC (1994-2002); Vice President of Dodsal & General Manager of Voltas Electrical Business Group (erstwhile Tata Merlin Gerin).

- 1. Founded multiple Clean Tech companies, including Malavalli Power Plant (which commissioned in 2001 the world's 1st low density crop residues fired power plant, which also delivered the world's 1st Gold Standard CER's). Currently, Chairman CVC India Infrastructure Pvt Ltd and CVC Biorefineries Pvt Ltd
- 2. From 2008 to 2012 was Member of Advisory Board of Ambienta SGR, an over Euro 1500 million Environment Fund.
- 3. Contributes to Sustainable Development as Founder of Grameena Abhivrudhi Mandali and Grameena Vidyut Vikas (section 8 companies); Centre for Rural Energy & Water Access (NGO).
- 4. Engaged in Policy formulation related to Green Economy, from 2015 onwards, in capacity of
 - a) India Chair of BRICS Business Council Working Group on Energy & Green Economy.
 - b) Chair of FICCI Committee on Climate Change (2017-22); Speaker/ Panelist in UNFCC/COP's (2015 – 22)
 - c) Chairman of Green Jobs Skills Council, (2015-2021), founded by MNRE & CII, under aegis of MSDE.
 - d) Contributed articles to G20 & G7 Publications; was Member of B20 Task Force- Energy, Climate & Resource Efficiency.
 - e) Was Working Group Chair of FICCI Task Force for preparing "India Roadmap on Low carbon & Sustainable Mobility"
 - f) Was Member of World Bank "Experts Team", which prepared, in 2005, Roadmap for Fiji to achieve 100% RE. In 2008, prepared Report for KfW, titled "Review of Project Methodology & identification of Project Options : UNDP/GEF Project – Barriers to Biomass Power Generation in India"